

In case you decide to move around Croatia freely, recommended option is to rent a car. There are many agencies that provide cars of various sizes and manufacturers, as well as mini buses and minivans, with the option of picking it up in one place and returning in another.

www.sixt.com gives you the best prices by making reservation on-line and in advance (it gets higher in agencies), and they won't charge you extra for returning a vehicle. They have offices at all airports and in bigger tourist centres. Their rental service includes small compact cars, SUVs, caravans, limousines, minibuses, vans and cabriolets, all of which are not more than 2 years old. All comes fully equipped, you can choose between manual and auto gear box, and you can require a child seat and satellite navigation. We wish you safe and enjoyable ride!
